

High luminance and long life technology

Looking at diagnostic images on a high-luminance display is very much like looking at filmed images on a light box. The  $\lambda$ - Sentinel luminance stabilizing system has increased the stability period by more than threefold. This increased longevity helps reduce replacement costs in the long run and consequently reduces your TCO.

* Comparison with luminance set to factory defaults.

Models supported : ME251i